

29 December 1954

MEMORANDUM FOR THE RECORD

SUBJECT: 28 and 29 December 1954 Briefing of the Task Force on Intelligence Activities.

25X1A

1. The day and a half session with the [REDACTED] Division for some reason was somewhat of a disappointment to Colonel Lane. This disappointment was divulged to me during a private conversation following the briefing. I will attempt to put the conversation in context as best I can. Colonel Lane remarked, "I can't help but feel that this Division is way off base. They seem to be political action happy. I find that throughout the Division they tend to stress geo-political aspects at the expense of [REDACTED] I am wondering whether such great reliance on political action alone is the correct approach."

25X1A

2. Colonel Lane's major interests during the [REDACTED] tour were:

Overstressing of political action;
Personnel -- morale, turnover, appearance:

25X1A

3. Colonel Lane is quite disappointed in the untidiness of many of the offices we have visited, but more so in the appearance of a great number of our female employees. He remarked that the dishabille was very noticeable and that possibly a campaign to "don girdles and comb hair" might be in order. He added that a finger of scorn can be pointed to a number of male employees, too, even in the higher positions. Inasmuch as this item has been repeated to me on several occasions it may be well to bring this to the attention of the responsible Division Chiefs.

25X1A

29 December 1954

MEMORANDUM FOR THE RECORD

SUBJECT: 28 and 29 December 1954 Briefing of the Task Force on Intelligence Activities.

1. The day and a half session with the [REDACTED] Division for some reason was somewhat of a disappointment to Colonel Lane. This disappointment was divulged to me during a private conversation following the briefing. I will attempt to put the conversation in context as best I can. Colonel Lane remarked, "I can't help but feel that this Division is way off base. They seem to be political action happy. I find that throughout the Division they tend to stress geo-political aspects at the expense of [REDACTED] I am wondering whether such great reliance on political action alone is the correct approach."

2. Colonel Lane's major interests during the [REDACTED] tour were:

Overstressing of political action;
Personnel -- morale, turnover, appearance;
[REDACTED]
Cover problems.

3. Colonel Lane is quite disappointed in the untidiness of many of the offices we have visited, but more so in the appearance of a great number of our female employees. He remarked that the dishabille was very noticeable and that possibly a campaign to "don girdles and comb hair" might be in order. He added that a finger of scorn can be pointed to a number of male employees, too, even in the higher positions. Inasmuch as this item has been repeated to me on several occasions it may be well to bring this to the attention of the responsible Division Chiefs.

This document has been approved for release through the HISTORICAL REVIEW PROGRAM of the Central Intelligence Agency.

Date

5/5/92

HRP

89-2

~~SECRET~~ ~~ONLY~~

010198